Join the Cloverdale Democratic Club and Cloverdale Indivisible for the Citrus Fair Parade

Requested attire: Solid dark blue, black or dark gray pants and top—no prints.. We want nothing to distract from our message. Don't forget a hat or cap for sun protection

Blue Flag Instructions: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xv8gEbOPvnA&app=desktop>

Wednesday 2/14 3-6pm at Moe's Eagles Nest and Deli

You can help the Cloverdale Dems make signs and assemble handouts for the parade. We have 20 poster boards to share—just bring your pens, staplers, tape, and other sign-making supplies you need to be creative! If there are any left over, you're free to pick up a poster board to work on at home.

Saturday 2/17 10am at Cloverdale Citrus Fair Parade

Line up at Commercial Street/Third Street at 10am. Parade starts 11am.

Parade lineup number and exact location TBD—we'll let you know as soon as we know.

North Bay Rapid Response Network

Make a difference in your community by standing up to hostility towards immigrants! Learn about the new North Bay Rapid Response Network, and receive training as a Legal Observer.

Teams of Legal Observers document immigration raids happening in their neighborhoods so that civil rights violations can be used to build a case against deportation, keeping families together and protecting our neighbors. Legal observers are needed all over Sonoma County.

LEGAL OBSERVER TRAINING SESSIONS:

FEBRUARY 15 @ 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Sonoma State University Library, Schulz Information Center 3001
1801 E Cotati Ave.
Rohnert Park, CA 94928 United States
Phone: (707) 664-2375

FEBRUARY 27 @ 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
209 West Matheson St.
Healdsburg, CA 95448 United States
Phone: (707) 433-2107

MARCH 3 @ 9:00 – 11:30 am

Community Church of Sebastopol
1000 Gravenstein Hwy N, Sebastopol, CA 95472
Phone: \(707\) 823-2484823-2484)

Receive training as a Legal Observer, and/or to create Accompaniment Teams to support individuals and families impacted by ICE raids, detentions and deportation. Our March 3 training will include Legal Observer, Accompaniment and Workplace Preparedness training and explain AB 450, a new law in effect beginning 1-1-2018 addressing workplace requirements.

Contact: sshaw@northbayop.org or (707) 481-2970 to participate.

Unprecedented Democracy Summit Sparks New Hope

A movement to unite Americans across political beliefs finds lots of common ground.

Almost 1,500 people gathered at Tulane University in New Orleans to attend the Unrig the System Summit (February 2-4, 2018), a massive undertaking to unite Americans across political beliefs toward the common purpose of fixing our broken (“rigged”) political system. And unite people it did, proudly procuring representation from all 50 states and hundreds of organizations. Read about this positive campaign at

Get-Out-the-Vote in PA-18 and other Special Elections

You are invited to join the Election Committee in writing postcards, texts, and making calls to Get-Out-the-Vote in Pennsylvania District 18 and other districts with important upcoming elections.

We'll meet at my house, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm, this Sunday. If interested, please email me at pbrow@verizon.net.

Some Backaround: Pennsvlvania District 18 is holding a snecial election on ~~Some Pennsylvania~~ Pennsylvania District 15 is holding a special election on March 13 to replace the anti-abortion Republican congressman who stepped down after his mistress went public when he asked her to get an abortion.

Democrat Conor Lamb, a former U.S. attorney and Marine Corps veteran, is running against Republican Rick Saccone, and Trump is expected to visit the district soon, for his second visit there — signaling how important this race is to Republicans. See:
